

Advent House Life

“more than a place to live...”

Simply stated, Advent House exists to:

- Provide a Christian living experience for students in harmony with a Christian lifestyle in the midst of a public university setting
- Provide a comfortable, supportive gathering place for students
- Provide opportunities for spiritual growth and leadership
- Provide a lower-than-average-cost residence for students
- Provide support to the ministry of Adventist Christian Fellowship (ACF) at UTK

Residents are expected to:

- Participate in the fellowship and ministry of ACF
- Be open to and seeking spiritual growth from wherever they are at
- Share in weekly household tasks
- Support and interact with others in the ACF ministry
- Assist director in welcoming visitors
- Attend weekly house meetings with fellow residents

Residency is on a selection basis. If what is described above interests you, the following criteria need to be met:

- Participate with ACF for at least one semester before submitting an application
- Complete the application for residency
